10th Graduation celebrations

Mr. Abhishek, Executive Director, Presenting Certificates Sri C. Gangi Reddy, Founder, delivering his address

The 10th Graduation Day celebrations at AITS Rajampet, held on July 21, 2021, were a spectacular and memorable occasion that illuminated the campus with splendor and pomp. The event's distinguished Chief Guest was Prof. G. Ranga Janardhana, the Vice-Chancellor of JNTUA Anantapuramu. In his inspirational address to the young graduates, Prof. Janardhana not only distributed provisional certificates but also commended the institution for its unwavering commitment to providing high-quality technical education to rural students in the region.

Prof. Janardhana emphasized the pivotal role of education and values in shaping a successful life, imparting wisdom to the graduates about the importance of integrating ethical principles into their careers to achieve their goals.

Sri Choppa Gangi Reddy, the visionary founder of AET, graced the occasion as the presiding figure, instilling in the graduates the notion that those with higher education bear a responsibility to work for the benefit of society.

Dr. S.M.V. Narayana, the Principal of AITS, extended heartfelt congratulations to the young graduates and stressed the significance of hard work and leadership skills in attaining their desired life outcomes.

The event was further illuminated by the presence of Dr. C. Ramachandra Reddy, Chairman of AET, Sri Choppa Yella Reddy, Vice-Chairman of AET, Deans from various departments, and the dedicated staff. Collectively, they made this Graduation Day an unforgettable milestone, marking not only the culmination of academic journeys but also the commencement of their roles as responsible and educated contributors to society. The day was a blend of academic achievement and the promise of a brighter future.
